

we're talking health...

FREE PUBLIC
EVENT
FREE PARKING

Presented by:

Health Research
Society of Canterbury

Programme

6.30-8.30pm Wed 16th May, K Block foyer, Ara Institute of Canterbury

Welcome and introduction: MCs - Stella Ward, Chief Digital Officer and Executive Director Allied Health, CDHB, and Professor David Murdoch, Dean, University of Otago, Christchurch (UOC)

Session 1

- 1 Averting the grim reaper, Professor Vicky Cameron (UOC)
- 2 Preparing the next generation of surgeons for rare procedures, Jon Wells (CDHB)
- 3 Bugs and bowel cancer, Professor Frank Frizelle (CDHB/UOC)
- 4 Well women birth better in primary care, Rea Daellenbach (Ara)

Dr. Sean MacPherson performs his original compositions

Mini break

Session 2

- 5 Replacing drugs with virtual reality, Peter Dooley (CDHB)
- 6 How sleep interventions are helping autistic children, Dr Laurie McLay (UC)
- 7 The Cantabrians and the 'God particle', Dr Tracy Kirkbride (Ara)
- 8 The genetics of anorexia, Dr Jenny Jordon (UOC)
- 9 Māori health: what we know and why doing nothing is not an option, Amber Clarke (Matapopore)
- 10 Cannabis: What's the harm? Associate Professor Joe Boden (UOC)

Closing remarks: Dr Ian Town, Chair, Health Precinct Advisory Council

Tea and coffee: meet researchers, accompanied by 'Strings Attached' a Christchurch health professional string quartet.